ANNOUNCING: Fall 2023 Internship

The LGBTQ Religious Archives Network (LGBTQ-RAN) is seeking a Jewish History and Multi-Media Assistant Intern for the fall of 2023. This will be a part-time position (10 hours a week) for 13 weeks in September, October and November. This online internship is intended for students or recent graduates seeking to develop skills in preserving and studying LGBTQ religious history.

The primary responsibilities of this internship will include:

- Researching and writing biographical profiles and website content on queer Jewish history; and
- Creating and assisting in the development of short historical presentations in a variety of formats-- audio, video or text—for LGBTQ-RAN's October 2023 GALA event.

The intern will participate in LGBTQ-RAN staff meetings via videoconference every 3 weeks. The intern will provide their own office and equipment needed to carry out their work. The intern will receive a stipend of $1,500.

The LGBTQ Religious Archives Network (www.lgbtqreligiousarchives.org) is an innovative venture in preserving history and encouraging scholarly study of LGBTQ religious movements around the world. LGBTQ-RAN has a two-fold basic purpose. First it assists LGBTQ religious leaders and groups in determining how best to preserve their records and papers in appropriate repositories. Secondly, LGBTQ-RAN provides an electronic information clearinghouse for these archival collections and other historical data—such as biographical profiles, oral histories and digital exhibitions—about LGBTQ religious history for the use of historians, researchers and other interested persons.

To apply for an internship, please send cover letter and resume detailing relevant education and experience by July 31, 2023 to: LGBTQ-RAN Executive Director Mark Bowman at mark@lgbtqreligiousarchives.org
